

American Profile

APRIL 25-MAY 1, 2010

HIGHWAYS & BUY-WAYS

Bargains await at multistate yard sales

May 3-23

HAPPENINGS

CONNECTICUT—Meet the Artists & Artisans Spring Show—Milford, May 8-9. Exhibitors display, demonstrate and discuss their original works on the Historic Milford Green. (203) 874-5672.

DELAWARE—First State 19th Century Base Ball Festival—Delaware City, May 22-23. Watch as 14 base ball clubs compete in games played according to 1860s rules at Fort DuPont State Park, plus enjoy a street fair and tours of Fort Delaware. (302) 981-5972.

MARYLAND—Fine Art and Wine Tasting Festival—Sykesville, May 23. Juried artists

MAINE—Southern Comforts—Lewiston, May 7-16. Enjoy this off-Broadway comedy about a budding romance between a Yankee widower and a spunky Southern grandmother. The Public Theatre. (207) 782-3200.

showcase and sell their works during this event, which also includes wine and beer tastings, live music, and food on Main Street and at the Baldwin Station Restaurant. (410) 795-8959.

MASSACHUSETTS—Simply Sinatra with Steve Lippia—Springfield, May 15. The Springfield Symphony Orchestra and vocalist Steve Lippia present “My Way” and other Sinatra favorites, at Symphony Hall. (413) 733-2291.

NEW HAMPSHIRE—Cirque Le Masque—Keene, May 7. Delight in this European-style circus, which incorporates dance and mime with acrobatics, lavish costumes and dazzling special effects, at the Colonial Theatre. (603) 352-2033.

NEW JERSEY—Garden State Philharmonic Concert—Lakewood, May 15. The philharmonic presents “Symphonic Storytellers,” its season finale, at The Strand Theater. (732) 255-0460.

NEW YORK—Adirondack Paddlefest—Old Forge,

May 21-23. Browse more than 1,000 canoes and kayaks for sale, test boats on the lake, and attend sessions on water safety, rescue and other topics, on North Street. (315) 369-6672.

PENNSYLVANIA—Pocono Mountains Run for the Red Marathon—Stroudsburg, May 16. Lace up your running shoes for a marathon, relay or 5K race through the Poconos during this benefit for the Monroe County American Red Cross. (570) 476-3800.

Kielbasi Festival—Shenandoah, May 22. Join in contests to make regular and smoked kielbasi (Polish sausage), sample Eastern European food, and enjoy games, music and Polish pottery on North Main Street. (570) 462-2060.

RHODE ISLAND—East Farm Spring Festival—Kingston, May 8. Shop for low-cost compost bins, rain barrels and plants grown by University of Rhode Island master gardeners at the university’s East Farm. (401) 874-4453.

VERMONT—Community Health Fair—Townshend, May 15. Learn about ways to improve your health, take health tests, donate blood, and watch fire safety demonstrations presented by Grace Cottage Hospital staff on the Town Common and at Leland & Gray High School. (802) 365-9109.